

Never before has the ocean's power been portrayed so vividly...

“Nathan sings the music of the sea, on a joyful ride that sweetens on every page.”

—Mickey Muñoz, Legendary Surfer and Shaper

“I was blown away! Awesome stuff, well written, vivid. Nathan expresses, in a powerful and accessible style, observations and feelings that all lovers of the ocean and beach have experienced.”

—Gerald Sanders, The Tornadoes, Lead Vocals & Bassist

“Fascinating, engaging, and riveting. Nathan portrays the magnificence of the ocean in a flowing, peaceful, and exquisite manner.”

—“Kahuna” Bob Edwards

“Nathan’s vivid and moving characterization of the sea inspires one to visit the shore, surf, swim or dive in its cool waters, and provide stewardship to protect it from the follies of man.”

—Mark Gold, Executive Director, Heal the Bay

75 pages / 6X9
Paperback ISBN: 0-595-38860-4 $10.95

Available from Ingram Book Group, Baker & Taylor, and iUniverse, Inc

To order call 1-877-823-9235
Or visit www.iuniverse.com

This collection of original, surf-inspired poetry, stirs visions of the sea’s heartbeat, its sandy shores and awesome surf in ways that truly, only words can describe. Written in harmonious fashion by one who’s experienced the ocean in all its glory, grace and might, Rhythm of the Ocean serves tribute the our world’s wondrous seas.

Nathan Cool is the founder of WaveCast Chief Forecaster for WetSand.com, and author of many books and articles including Cherished Memories, and the world’s first comprehensive guide to surf forecasting. Nathan resides in Southern California where he can often be found surfing many of the breaks along the Ventura coast. More information on Nathan Cool’s books, articles, and services can be found at his web site:
www.nathancool.com

Author Contact: www.nathancool.com
pr@nathancool.com

